Akira Wood Honored

GAINESVILLE, FL — Mayor Pegeen Hanrahan and the Gainesville City Commission honored Akira Wood, the owner of the largest photovoltaic solar system in Gainesville on Monday, February 11th, 2008 during a special recognition ceremony at City Hall.

Hoch Shitama, owner of Akria Wood, received special recognition and a ceremonial check from the City Commission and GRU during the City Commission meeting on Monday. In December 2007, Akria Wood installed the largest photovoltaic system in the history of Gainesville and qualified for the state and local rebates from GRU. Pure Energy Solar engineered and installed the 25KW system for Akira Wood, located at the corner of South Main Street and SW Depot Ave.
